

Your Wedding Day

Tullamore Court
HOTEL

We believe in 'happy ever after'

Long after you've forgotten practical details such as what was on your wedding menu, or the name of your wedding band, the deeply personal memories of your most special day will linger on and on. And it's these little things that tend to etch themselves most deeply in your memory.

At the Tullamore Court, we don't claim for one minute that we can shape any of these precious moments. But we can guarantee you that we'll provide the perfect backdrop to your perfect day, stage-managing every little detail and making sure that you're free to relax and enjoy the moment to the full. After all, it's YOUR day.

In fact such is our success at managing the finer details of that special day, we have been awarded the 2005 Regional 'Best Wedding Venue' from Weddings Irish Style magazine.

“The sense of excitement in the hotel on a wedding day is simply unbelievable.”

The Tullamore Court is a contemporary four-star hotel which offers the perfect blend of modern luxury and old-world courtesy and hospitality.

One of the most highly regarded hotels in the Midlands Region, it enjoys a reputation second to none when it comes to providing you with an unsurpassed and truly memorable day.

Our banqueting suite provides a backdrop of elegance and warmth for your special day, while our beautifully appointed guest rooms are the perfect retreat for guests who are travelling to join you.

But it's our staff who make the real difference. Their professionalism and sheer enthusiasm shine through time and again, as you'll see from the testimonials later in this brochure. At times, it's hard to tell whether they're working at a wedding or actually looking forward to the event as guests.

The day of a lifetime – our wedding gift to you

For your guests, the first sight they'll get of the Tullamore Court is the red carpet welcoming you, the bride and groom.

But the reality of the matter is that your perfect day will have started months or maybe even years in advance when you first meet our friendly, professional and dedicated wedding team.

At this stage, you'll be taken through every single detail of your wedding day, from choice of menu to a detailed running order of the speeches and the toasts during your banquet. We'll even help you decide which of your favourite music you'd like our resident musician to play during your meal.

We pride ourselves on our attention to detail and our comprehensive wedding package includes such elements as:

- Champagne for the bride and groom on arrival to put some immediate sparkle into your marriage.
- Enjoy a complimentary fruit punch and tea/coffee reception for all your guests, welcoming them to your banquet at the Tullamore Court.

- Choose from a selection of wedding menu packages to reflect the seasons.
- Our resident musician will set the scene creating a wonderful atmosphere as your guests take their seats for dinner. Both you and your guests will be entertained during dinner with our compliments.
- Souvenir menu cards which are specially printed so that you and your guests can enjoy a permanent keepsake.
- Stunning floral arrangements for each of the tables and a special arrangement for the top table. We'll even co-ordinate the choice of colours with your chosen colour scheme.
- You'll spend your first night together as a married couple in our beautiful Bridal Suite – with our compliments.
- We offer your guests a special accommodation rate, to include full Irish breakfast.

said your goodbyes. We're delighted to invite you back a complimentary 6-month membership in our superb Leisure Centre.*

We couldn't say it better ourselves

No matter what claims we may make, our ultimate reputation lies in the hands of our customers. They are our final arbiters of excellence and it is thanks to their warm and generous feedback that we can continuously raise our standards.

The following is a brief selection of comments from some couples who have recently celebrated their weddings at the Tullamore Court.

Great reputation

The main reason we chose the Tullamore Court for our wedding reception was due to Martin Tempany's great reputation - and he certainly lived up to it. He excels in what he does, and it's obvious that he gets great satisfaction from ensuring that his wedding receptions run perfectly smooth. We forgot our guest book and Martin went to the trouble of getting lovely paper to make a booklet for us - just one small example!

Fabulous food

The Tullamore Court really helped make our day special. Even in the organising stage, they were professional and friendly which meant we never needed to stress or worry. Everybody commented on the fabulous food and service. We had a big wedding so maintaining that high standard for over 220 people is quite an achievement...

Planning pays off

I had a fantastic wedding day from start to finish and so much of that was down to the hotel. I didn't have to worry about anything - everything just seemed to slot into place so easily but I know that was only due to the hard work and planning behind the scenes.

Excellent service

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for an excellent wedding reception. Both ourselves, friends and family have commented on how much of an excellent service you have provided to us. We have no hesitation in highly recommending your hotel to friends for their wedding reception.
